West Valley Flying Club Scholarships

These Scholarships have been established as perpetual scholarships, awarded to aspiring pilots or pilots pursuing additional ratings and certificates within the WVFC community.

Lorne Lawry Scholarship (awarded to aspiring pilots)

- Provides $1000 towards initial flight training for future pilots in any aircraft.
- There is no length of membership requirement, however, you must be a current "Regular" WVFC member.

Gianni Manganelli Scholarship (awarded to aspiring pilots or pilots pursuing additional ratings)

- Provides up to $1000 towards initial flight training or additional ratings and certificates being obtained at WVFC. Additional ratings and certificates include but are not limited to, instrument rating, commercial, CFI, CFII.
- There is no length of membership requirement, however, you must be a current "Regular" WVFC member.

99's Scholarship (awarded to aspiring female pilots or female pilots pursuing additional ratings)

- Provides up to $1000 towards initial flight training or additional ratings and certificates being obtained at WVFC. Additional ratings and certificates include but are not limited to, instrument rating, commercial, CFI, CFII.
- There is no length of membership requirement, however, you must be a current "Regular" WVFC member.

Notes for all applicants:

- In any given year, WVFC members, including current or past scholarship winners, may apply for any one scholarship or award for which they are eligible, and may be awarded scholarships in consecutive years. However, the scholarships are intended to extend opportunities to as many members as possible, and not to provide one individual member's training from start to finish.
- Scholarship awards can be used for any financial obligations throughout the training including but not limited to aircraft/simulator time, flight instruction, written exams, books, and supplies.

All applications are due on November 30th and winners are notified with an award ceremony at the WVFC annual holiday party in December.
